Appomattox County Library

By Verna Conner

The majority of people are surprised when they hear that the circulation of library books increases during the month of June and reaches its peak in July. One would think that children, having been in school so long would be glad to forget about books during vacation but not so. Even the next day after school closes, they flock to the library.

So this week I would like to recommend a few books suitable for young people. If you have never read The Witch of Blackbird Pond don't fail to do so. It carries one back to Colonial days when witchcraft was a serious crime and even befriending someone accused of being a witch, was dangerous.

Other good books for the in-between age (childhood to teen-age) are A Winkle in Time, Onion John, My Side of the Mountain, Wind in the Willows, It's Like This, Cat, Wheel on the School, Secrety Girl.

All of the Black Stallion books: National Velvet, Misty of Chincoteague; The Laura Ingalls Wilder books which includes Little House on the Prairie, currently being shown on television; All of the Beverly Cleary books, The Gertrude Warner books, The Bronze Bow, Caddie Woodlawn, Miss Hickory, Miracle of Maple Hill, Ginger Pye, Rabbill Hill, Door in the Wall, Rascal, Daniel Boone and others too numerous to mention.

Ask your librarian for a list of the Newberrry Award books. Anything on that list is good.

Happy Reading!

Exhibit Center And Art Gallery Planned For Appomattox Station

The Historic Appomattox Station Arts & Crafts Center in cooperation with the Appomattox County Centennial Commission, and Appomattox Court House National Historical Park is planning to open an exhibit center at the Railroad Station to spotlight Appomattox history from the county's birth to the present. Items of historical interest and special displays depicting local agricultural history, Civil War history, and history of the railroad here will be featured. (Due to limited space geneological history will be omitted at the present time.) Citizens having items pertaining to these catagories for display are encouraged to contact Mrs. Geraline Marshall 352-8093.

Appomattox Station presently houses a Craft Shop which features a variety of wares made by local craftsmen. In addition to the Craft Shop and the planned exhibit center, H.A.S.A.C.C. will open a gallery for artists' works about mid-July. The gallery will display art work by a variety of local artists which previously were not displayed to advantage in the present space used to display craft items.

Community support in these projects is welcomed. The Railroad Station on Main Street in Appomattox can be a real focal point to growth and activity if every citizen here takes an interest.

Homemakers Club Organized

The Meadowlark Extension Homemakers Club was officially organized as the newest Extension Homemakers Club in Appomattox County Tuesday evening, June 17.

The primary objectives of this Extension Homemaker Club are to foster the highest ideals of home life, to encourage all forces for community betterment, to become better informed homemakers, and to continue to promote beautification and preservation for community appearance.

The "Homemaker's Creed" which this new club and the other clubs in the county and state abide by reads as follows:

"As Homemakers We Will Strive to:

"Have our organization foster the highest ideals in home, church, school and public life.

"Have our homes reach out in service to the communities and help unite the people.

"Have cooperation and progress the leading forces in our communities.

"Study the best ways to do everyday work that we may find joy in common tasks well done.

"Be kind beyond the standards of charity; avoid thoughts and words that condemn; be more thoughtful than love requires; maintain the highest ideals of Christian life."

Officers of the Meadow lark Extension Homemakers Club pictured above in top photo on left from left to right are Miss Shirley Dillard, Vice-President; Mrs. Jean Thomas, Secretary; Mrs. Virginia Goode, Treasurer; Mrs. June Coleman, Federation Goal Leader; and Mrs. Dorothy Stevens, Program Topic Leader. Also pictured in the far right is Mrs. Cliff Plunkett, representing the Appomattox County Extension Homemaker Council. Absent due to illness was Mrs. Betty Pennix, the club's president.

Gary W. Thomas

Thomas to Teach

Gary W. Thomas, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Thomas, has been appointed Vocational Agriculture teacher at Jefferson Forest High School in Bedford County. Thomas is a recent June graduate from VPI & SU, where he majored in Agriculture Education. Thomas has always been involved in 4-H FFA and Vocational Agriculture during his years in high school at Appomattox. In Memorium

In memory of Mrs. Wesley Stanley who died June 21, 1970.

Five years have past since you left me and
Here I am celebrating my first wedding anniversary
And I don't have you here to share in my happiness.

You always said you wanted me to be happy.
And you tried to teach me how I could achieve that happiness.

I still have the memories of how we used to talk
I didn't realize then how much it all meant
Now I am left with only memories.

Memories? Grandmother! How can I forget?
Your smiling eyes, your helping hands,
Grandmother! Your clear laughter had a depth that thrilled my heart.
Thank God! Memories last!

Even though you are not here with me, I still cherish the thought of having you as my Grandmother,
If you knew that I once loved you, then you know my love for you still remains.
And I look forward to the day that we'll be together again! Missed dearly by granddaughter, Nancy. 6-26-1p
